Crackerbox Derby Championship Sunday Won By Donald Lee Bobby

CLASS B CHAMP WINS FROM CLASS A WINNER IN FINAL OF 16 RACES

Before a thrilled crowd estimated at 1500 Ocean Beach Crackerbox derby, biggest competitive youth event of its kind of the year, Donald Lee Bobby won the championship and grand prize. Sunday afternoon on the Newport St. down hill race course. His time for the 1200 feet was caught by several watches between 21 and 23 seconds. The 12-year-old graduate of Cabrillo sixth grade this year, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bobby of 4573 Granger St., drove about the slimmest streamline racer seen in these parts since the "derbies" of this kind were started.

Bobby had previously won the finals in Class B, and in the run-off won from Gordon Jennings, 13, previous winner of the Class A group races. Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jennings of 4311 Newport Ave.

A total of 16 heats with two racers in each were contested, nine in Class B, six in Class A and the final clash between the winner of first in each group. Group winners were as follows: Class B—Donald Bobby first, Eddie Ramsey, 12, second and Joe Aubrey, 12, third.

Class A—Gordon Jennings first, Bob Lechien, 14, second and Benny Vaughn, 14, third.

Grand championship prize was a handsome bronze plaque, to Donald Bobby. Winners of first in each class were awarded a bicycle, second place winners each a wrist watch and third place winners each a small radio. In addition each contestant was

A graduate of U.S.C. he was for 6 1/2 years employed by Massey Horton when the latter operated a drug store in El Centro. Mr. Berthiaume has a wife and daughter and is another family added to the list of homeseekers in Ocean Beach. He succeeds Jack Halcro who has returned to his home state.

Several Changes Of Business Places Here On July 1ST

July 1, the dividing line of Uncle Sam's fiscal year, seems to be the date on which several business changes were made in Ocean Beach.

Glen Jones, who has been a familiar figure around the corner of Bacon and Santa Monica for several years has transferred the scene of his operations to the corner of Sunset Cliffs and Newport, and expects soon to have open his new gas station there. Glen has promised more of the details of his new station for an early issue of The News. He has sold his interests in the Richfield station at Bacon and Santa Monica to M. B. Buum and F. A. Hodge. The latter two men have leased the station and took possession on July 1. Both are from the middle west. Mr. Hodge, who with his wife and three children, are living at 1214 Devonshire Dr., came from Rochester, Minn. and has been in San Diego about one year. Mr. Buum also lives on Devonshire Dr. at 1265 and has a wife and three children. He has been in San Diego about five years and came from Alameda, S. D. He has been in the filling station and garage business for about 10 years.

Mel Bergstrom Sells Mel Bergstrom, popular proprietor of Mel's Station at Voltaire and Bacon, sold his interest there to Roy C. Wood of 4580 Narragansett Ave. Mr. Wood is a brother of Bly Wood of the Wood Shoe Store on Newport Ave. After 24 years in the garage business in San Francisco, Roy moved to Ocean Beach last May, and also moved much of his garage equipment here.

Mel announces that he is acquiring serious intentions of going into the commercial fishing industry.

The Beacon Electric Company of 1883 Bacon St. also changed hands on July 1. Bert Bowling selling to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Gilmore. Gilmore, who has been employed at Ryan's for several years, previously was in similar business in Cincinnati, Ohio and in Upland, Calif.

Small Town Folks Provide Thrills For Tourist Norma

Slidell, La.
May 23, 1947

Dear Mom:

I finally received the package you sent. Hungry (naturally) my eyes nearly bulged out when I opened the box! The dates, nuts and fruit (miraculously still good) lasted me two and a half meals.

(Note: I sent this pkg. to Norma in time for Easter and she finally got it about two months later.)

This happened awhile back but I'm going to write about it now. I rode into a small town, after a long stretch of nothing, but didn't guess all the town held for me—a boy who was very sweet, a bum whose heart was tender and lonely and a policeman who was helpful. I wandered back and forth on the main street like a bee in a field of blossoms trying to decide where to settle. I chose a highway patrol car, parked at the corner of a side street, waiting to dart out and arrest the unlawful flight of speeders. "Do you know where there's a good place I can spread my sleeping roll for tonight?" The patrolmen looked quickly at each other, then asked for my story.

"There's grass around my house, you'd be safe there," the one behind the wheel offered. I happily took his offer and followed his directions. I found the maintenance camp. Telling the patrolman's wife I had permission to stop near their house, I took a cold shower, set my hair and lost

Point Loma Lodge Masons Sponsor Order Of DeMolay

BOYS BETWEEN 14 AND 21 INCLUDED IN NEW LODGE FOR BAY AREA

Plans and arrangements are well underway for the formation of a local chapter of the Order of DeMolay which will have its headquarters in the Point Loma Masonic lodge. The News was informed this week.

The Order of DeMolay is an organization for young men between the ages of 14 and 21 years. The movement was founded in 1919 by Frank S. Land in Kansas City, Mo. Today there are more than a million and a half young men who are members of the organization.

The purpose of the order is to teach clean and upright living by practicing the virtues of comradeship, reverence, love of parents, patriotism, courtesy, cleanliness and fidelity.

The requirements for membership are: "Must have attained the age of 14 and be under 21. Must believe in God and be of good character and reputation. Any DeMolay in good standing or a Freemason will be glad to assist the applicant in filling out a written petition or application for membership in the order. The regular initiation fee must accompany the petition. The annual dues are nominal and there are no assessments."

Mr. Lake states that all boys meeting the above requirements who wish to join now and become charter members should contact Mr. Lake, chapter adviser, B-4135 or Cecil M. Canoy, membership adviser, B-7558.

Crackerbox Derby Racer Hits Woman Near Curb Sunday

Mrs. Alma Hatz of 5097 W. Pt. Loma Blvd. holds the somewhat dubious distinction of being the Crackerbox Derby's only casualty. As she stood on the curb engrossed in the first race Sunday of the two little cars careening toward her, Richard Berry of 1462 Sunset Cliffs, the youthful driver of one of them, lost control of his car due to the fact that his helmet, a bit too large for him, slipped over his eyes sufficiently to throw him off his course and dangerously close to the other racer. In trying to avoid a collision with his opponent, he swerved to the sidewalk, knocking Mrs. Hatz to the ground and causing slight injury to one of her legs. She was taken in the police car to the office of Dr. J. W. Wilhoit of Ocean Beach, who administered emergency treatment. He told reporters she was not seriously injured, but suffered from shock. The racer lost both rear wheels and was damaged sufficiently to scratch it from the race. Fortunately the driver was unhurt.

It's a girl for the Jim A. Wheelises of 3950 Voltaire, who have named her Katherine Sue. Katherine made her debut at the Navy hospital on North Island June 18.

Mrs. W. F. Dunne of 4771 Brighton is currently entertaining her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. E. W. Goucheur and Yvonne, here for the summer from Urbana, Ill.

Doctors Plan To Move This Week To New Quarters

Three doctors who have been members of the physicians staff of the Sand-Oster Clinic plan to move this week-end across the street to two new buildings constructed and owned by Fred Jackson, contractor. The buildings are at 4918 Santa Monica and have been leased by Dr. Winton B. Oster. Associated with him are Dr. Rowland Harris and Dr. G. David Hjartarson.

Members of the staff of the Sand-Oster Clinic who are accompanying the doctors to the new quarters are Mrs. James Killen, X-ray and laboratory technician; Mrs. George Tomaszewski, registered nurse; Mrs. Esther Gage, receptionist and bookkeeper; Miss Henrietta Tschatter, receptionist-secretary, and Warren Whitfield, assistant in the business department.

Announcement of the change was made this week by Dr. Oster and follows the dissolution of the Sand-Oster clinic, which he reports was effective May 20.

The new buildings contain 16 rooms and will have nearly all new furniture and equipment. They are being fitted out especially for their new use although the owner had originally planned them for three duplexes.

"We hope to have 'Open House' in our new quarters in about two weeks," Dr. Oster stated Wednesday.

Luckel Reports Bill For Local Jetty Now Law

Capt. Frank Luckel of Ocean Beach, home from the legislative session at Sacramento ended Tuesday of last week, informed The News that his Assembly bill No. 2487 providing for an 800-foot rock-filled jetty at Ocean Beach has been signed by the governor. He says that the bill provides $34,000 to match similar amount that San Diego city has set aside for the south jetty at the entrance of Mission Bay. Evidently the project is tied in with the big bay project and shows that the state has been committed to help finance the jetty.

This jetty is of particular interest to Ocean Beach, Luckel pointed out, since Army engineers have stated that it should materially help prevent erosion of the local beach, in fact it should help build up the beach. New evidence of the need for prevention of beach erosion has been provided on the beach at the foot of Newport and Santa Monica avenues this spring, the waves having taken out to sea

Beach Committee To Report Monday At C. C. Meeting

SUGGESTIONS ON BEACH IMPROVEMENT INVITED

A special Chamber of Commerce committee consisting of Milt Lancaster, Harry Masters and Dick Hilmen, are busy this week getting practical suggestions on what can be done to obtain imperatively needed accommodations for users of the local beach this season. They contacted the city officials Thursday and the report of their findings will be the main topic of discussion at the July membership meeting to be held at the Woman's clubhouse Monday evening, July 7, at 7:30.

Everyone interested in beach improvement and especially those who will present workable suggestions on improved beach facilities here is cordially invited to attend the meeting, whether members or not.

Everyone interested in the Newport Ave. parking problem is invited to attend the meeting and be prepared to vote on whether they think the avenue should have parallel or diagonal parking. Customers of the local stores, in particular, are invited to attend and be prepared to vote. A show of hands on this question will be called for.

LOCAL BUSINESS PEOPLE PLAN HOLIDAY VACATIONS

Independence Day means less of that very thing for most of the local merchants, who are planning to maintain business as usual today. However a few free spirits have announced plans for quiet celebration of the holiday.

Mrs. Joe Beardsley plans to take in the county fair with Mr. and Mrs. Noel Swetland.

Also attracted to the fairgrounds is Dr. S. A. Davenport. Mrs. Dorothy McCallum of Mary Jane's Beauty Shop will be entertaining friends from Los Angeles in her home at 4785 Santa Cruz.

John E. Lewin of the Royal Dry Cleaners plans a trip to Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewin, his parents, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ruth, have just returned from a three weeks' tour of Canada. John will be gone approximately three weeks.

Bob Stevenson of the Ocean Beach Garage is heading for Reno, to stay, he said, "until my money runs out." Brother Jack Stevenson threatens to "hide in the hills till it's all over."

MEET YOUR OCEAN BEACH NEIGHBORS

Father John Bradley

(Studio of the Cliffs)

For our "Ocean Beach Neighbors" column this week Father John Bradley, assistant pastor at Sacred Heart Catholic church, has been chosen.

The spirit of friendship and tolerance that exists among the people of Ocean Beach has made Father Bradley's residence in the United States completely enjoyable, he says.

Father Bradley was born on St. Patrick's day, March 17, 1917, in Kilkenny, Ireland. At the early age of 12 young John entered high school and soon after enrolled in St. Kieran's College. During the months when he was not attending school he helped his father, James Bradley, on their farm. Twelve years of hard study in classics and theology qualified John to be ordained in 1942. Soon after he sailed to England to take up temporary work in the Hexham and Newcastle parish and the Newcastle and Tyne parish in Northumberland, until the opportunity arose for him to come to America. His work in England consisted mainly in organizing youth groups.

In December 1946 Father Bradley sailed to New York and from there flew to San Diego. Upon arriving in this city he was appointed by Right Rev. Bishop Charles F. Buddy as assistant pastor of the Ocean Beach Sacred Heart church.

Chiefly interested in the Catholic Youth Organizations of the parish, Father Bradley is working toward making both the junior and senior groups two of the best in the city.

Having a real interest too in the United States, one of the first things Father Bradley did upon arriving here was to declare his citizenship intentions and is now awaiting the day when he can become a naturalized citizen.

Point Loma High Faculty Vacation Plans Announced

The high school parking lot is empty of the hopped-up jobs and the milling, youthful mob that throngs it most of the year except for the summer school pupils. Most of the doors are locked, and the corridors echo with emptiness. But even in this dull quiet, a few clerical workers and the school's loyal dean Mrs. Mary R. Maul are sticking around, keeping things going until the "season" opens again at Point Loma High. The students have scattered, to summer camps, to far-away resorts,—to a hundred different pursuits and pleasures. And in the meantime, what has become of the teachers?

Well reports weren't available on all of them, but here are a few we did track down.

Principal L. L. Bloomenshine is on the teaching staff of the summer school at State College for the first three weeks. After that he plans to catch up on his fishing, and particularly to show his son how to hook the big ones.

Vice Principal Bob Williams and family left last week on an extended vacation trip of about two months. Their principal objectives will be to visit relatives at Tulsa, Okla. and Vincennes, Ind.

Caroline L. Crosby will spend the summer in Honolulu, Hawaii. Florence Jones can be reached in Norway.

Barbara Byrne has gone to Berkeley, Calif.

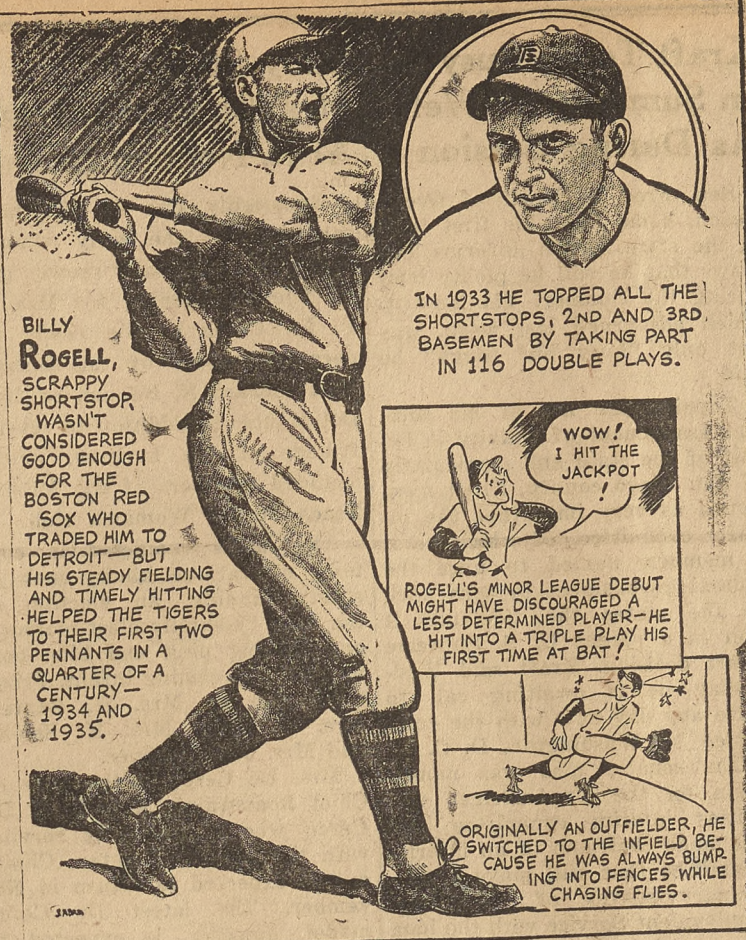

Don Giddings left an Ingleswood address for the summer.

Hilda D. Giles is in Walla Walla, Wash.

Anna E. Hillis is scratching mosquito bites in Ozone Park, N. Y.

Their colleagues are either vacationing locally or have departed for an undisclosed destination.

There are approximately 4½ million persons holding California operators and chauffeurs licenses.

Pot Roast Precaution

In cooking a pot roast, use only enough liquid to prevent sticking; and be sure to let it simmer, never boil. For variation, use vegetable juices, sour cream or buttermilk for the liquid.

Here's a novel way to serve left-over roast. Dip slices of cooked roast first in milk, then in seasoned bread crumbs. Cook to golden brown in hot lard, and serve immediately.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

Excerpts from the Ocean Beach News of 20 years ago Saturday, June 25, 1927.

Mrs. G. N. Vaughan reported to the police last Tuesday that some one had entered her residence on Ebers St. and stolen a valuable Elgin watch, leaving no clue.

At three o'clock in the morning on June 18 a fine baby boy weighing nine and one-half pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Shepard of 1852 Cable St. with Dr. A. J. Cooper in attendance. The newcomer has been named Eugene Alberti Shepard and he and his mother are reported to be progressing nicely.

Mrs. J. S. McInnis and her two children of San Bernardino are week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wickern of Niagara Ave. Mrs. McInnis is the sister of Mrs. Wickern.

Buddy Faber, Eileen Finley, Ruth Dumont, Faye Hite, Joan Hartley, Dorothy Hubbard and June Woodward were happy and delightful exponents of the art terpsichore at a splendid benefit dance recital given by Elsa E. Terheggen's pupils at the Wednesday clubhouse in San Diego June 22. The entertainment was largely attended and was given in aid of the flood sufferers.

Mrs. Irene Sterling of Los Angeles was a pleasant week-end visitor at the home of her son, Robert J. Sterling on Saratoga Ave.

Nine pounds was the weight of a baby boy born June 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Harris of 4832 Montalvo St. Dr. D. B. VanWageningen was in attendance. Mother and son are reported to be doing well while Papa Harris is doubly delighted because the bouncing baby arrived on his own birthday and was a boy too.

Kraft To Be Busy In Summer As Well As During Session

Sen. Fred H. Kraft of Ocean Beach, home from his first term in the state senate, informs The News that he will be plenty busy during the summer. The session, which adjourned last week, was not only "busy but tough" he said.

Topping the list of his summer assignment of activity in behalf of the state and particularly of San Diego county, Kraft mentioned as very important the interim committee, of which he is a member, named to urge the federal government to turn back to the states the tidelands it won in a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision. Kraft said Wednesday he is awaiting call to leave any day now with the committee for Washington, D. C.

The senator also was named again on the Un-American Activities interim committee and was made chairman of an interim committee that will make a preliminary survey of the State Employment Service with the idea of retaining in California the monies that belong to it.

Regarding the new law adding 1 1/2 cents to the gas tax in this state, Kraft said he voted for it since he felt it was needed to construct additional highways in this state.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Hall of 4870 Muir welcomed a baby daughter, Laura Gildae, born June 1 at Mercy hospital.

Mrs. C. R. Waltersdorff, 1995 Venice, left Sunday morning for a two weeks vacation at Yellowstone Park. Her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Mason, former residents of Ocean Beach but who now reside in San Diego are making the trip with her.

Richard Beck of 2387 Seaside St. didn't let the big one get away. He brought in the fish near the islands just off Point Loma, and found he had 28 pounds of white sea bass, which his mother, Mrs. Alfred Beck of the above address served to the fishing party Monday night at a fish dinner.

Baby Shower For Mrs. De Cercq Given At R. Noonan Home

Reportedly one of the most successful of the early summer parties was the baby shower given Tuesday evening for Mrs. L. P. De Cercq at the newly redecorated home of the hostess, Mrs. Richard N. Noonan of 4615 Del Monte. In addition to several friends of the honoree, guests included members of the Mission Beach Junior Woman's club.

The ladies competed in contests of various kinds, such as safety pinning, an election of the most "mentally alert mother," and making pink and blue bonnets for the coming infant. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. Baxter, Mrs. E. Ryan, Mrs. H. Shields and Mrs. J. C. Hooper.

Mrs. De Cercq is the wife of Chief Boatswain's Mate L. P. De Cercq who is currently serving with the navy in Tsintao, China, and is expected to return in November. The latest De Cercq model, however, is expected to join his (or her) sister Barbara Lou in the nursery before daddy gets here.

Guests at the affair included Mmes. J. M. Adamson, Harry Baxter, Richard Cole, M. C. Cosgrove, Arthur T. Byers, B. Keck, C. T. Mann, Jack Maxwell, William Sayles, Harold Shields, William Shirrod, Don G. Wilson, J. C. Hooper and B. Liesendahl. The party was served refreshments of fruit Bavarian cream and macaroons and coffee.

After the 9 a.m. nuptials, the family assembled at the El Cortez Hotel in San Diego for a wedding breakfast. This was followed at one the same afternoon by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. About 30 guests honored the newlyweds who shortly thereafter departed on a brief wedding trip to Laguna Beach.

'DAD' BURDINE GOES FISHIN'

It's off to the mountain streams and phoebo on the coasts of the world. At least it's that way with Warren "Dad" Burdine and his happy-go-lucky side kick Gene Shaw, who left Tuesday in Shaw's car for a 10-day trout fishing expedition at Mammoth Lake. With their camping gear in the back seat, the fishermen drove away in happy anticipation of the 10 quiet days and nights, and of the big ones they would catch and the bigger ones that would get away.

"Talk Of The Town"

Dear Friends:

HOLLYWOOD HAS BECKONED TO LUCILLE IVERSON OF OCEAN BEACH, but she prefers to remain here and personally instruct her many pupils in her studio at 1918 Bacon St. She has appeared and danced professionally for 25 years. Through her own experiences she has found it wise to combine ballet for grace, tap for rhythm, and acrobatics for bodily suppleness.

Concentration on one type of dancing has a tendency to overdevelop only those muscles used, and by combining all three it puts all the muscles to work equally, the result being a healthy and well-proportioned body. Vacation time is a wonderful time to start your child dancing—it occupies their time and saves wear and tear on your nerves. Lessons are $6.00 per month.

MISS MASON, Miss Iverson's talented and experienced co-worker, conducts special evening classes in ballroom dancing. Also classes are conducted in Hawaiian, character, rumba and tango. For the business girl and the house wife who doesn't get enough of the proper exercise, dancing is a wonderful way to reduce and keep the figure trim, firm and youthful. Evening adult classes by appointment only, and the studio doesn't accept pupils under 4 years old. DANCE YOUR WAY to a keener mind and a more beautiful body. B-6875.

DO YOU LOVE PETS? Well then, visit the FLEETWOOD PET SHOP at 1368 Bacon St., B-7520. This shop has pets, for the child and the adult, that are too numerous to mention. Pets are not only company but oftentimes can turn into a profitable hobby.

Have you seen the darling white kitten in the window looking so lonesome, or heard Polly the parrot say "Polly want a Cracker?" In the AQUARIUM ROOM is the finest collection of fish I've even seen! One thing about having fish for pets, they can't talk, ruin the furniture or soil the floors. For the children there's the Guppies and Goldfish which are very inexpensive, and for the experienced collectors there are many rare species like the Siamese fighting fish in gorgeous colors, the luminous Neon Tetra's, or the silver flat Hatchet Rasbora or the beautiful Angel fish. If cats and dogs aren't to your liking, THE FLEETWOOD SHOP carries inexpensive pets like turtles and white rats. Also a fine selection of birds like the brilliant Cardinals. Parakeets. Cockatoos; Love birds and of help teach children love, tolerance and respect for even a fish's intelligence. Many of us well remember

"LOU" FLEETWOOD as a local life guard. Well, he and his wife, CLAIRE, invite you to come in with your pet feeding and raising problems and will even lend you books free of charge. This neighborly gesture holds good whether you care to make a purchase or not. They carry pet foods of every description including fresh horse meat. Also to assist you is MRS. MAXIE and LOUIS "BUD" FLEETWOOD. Give this wonderland a visit.

DRESSMAKING AND DESIGNING is my second love. Mother said that I tried to sew and cut before I could talk. I enjoy my work and nothing gives me greater pleasure than to overhear compliments on my creations. Sewing in the beginning was my hobby and, having been a mistress of ceremonies and a singer, my theatrical career took me from Boston to California. This type of work calls for an extensive wardrobe. Therefore my talent for sewing saved me hundreds of dollars. Girls in the shows would ask me to sew for them and that's how I got started in the dressmaking business. To further my love for sewing I attended classes in Chicago and still take an occasional brushup course to learn newer and better tricks of the trade. I designed clothes in Chicago for 5 years before coming to California.

Depression days really taught me to combine economy, durability and style. For example Mrs. Santos had a lightweight cotton dress made last week and, through careful planning, I managed to have enough material left for a matching apron and pot holder. Mrs. Ruth Miller, whose husband owns the CATALINA NURSERY, had the neckline of her suit changed from a collar and lapels to a rounded neckline, which was much more flattering to her slender face. Mrs. Koffman, whose husband owns LINDA VISTA DEPT. STORE, had an original full patio skirt made, and from the left overs I fashioned and hand-rolled a head scarf and handkerchief. I also remodeled a seldom-used coat into a now fashionable swallow-tailed suit jacket. MILLIE, who works at the Ocean Beach branch of the Bank of America, was really pleased when I restyled her black out-dated dress. The sleeves were cut and gathered, hem lengthened, with the new slits and the unflattering ruffle was taken from the front and put in back which is in line with the new eye-catching bustle. I will be only too happy to help you ladies and teen-agers with any of your sewing problems free of charge. Come to the shop or telephone. 4154 Voltaire, B-0143.

Sincerely yours,
Donna

OCEAN BEACH FIREMEN CALLED BY FAKE ALARM

Apparently there are still those about who don't use their heads in differentiating between what is fun and what is dangerous and costly, for the City Fire department reports that a "malicious false alarm" was sounded Wednesday from the corner of Adrian and W. Pt. Loma Blvd. The fire marshal's office is investigating. Ocean Beach fire crew responded to the alarm.

PACIFIC BEACH FIESTA DAYS, JULY 9-13

This picture typifies the spirit of the 1947 Pacific Beach Fiesta Days to be held July 9-13 inclusive. At left is Jose Garcia, well-known Spanish troubador, who will be circulating in and out among the crowds at the Fiesta with his gaily-garbed players. At right is comely Leona Gale, La Jolla high school senior, who is one of the contestants in the county-wide "Miss San Diego" contest, which will climax the fiesta. Those wishing to enter are urged to call Mini O'Callaghan, Humboldt 8-4403 for interview and pictures. Girls must be single and from 18 to 28.

Remodeling Marvel
Revealed At Open
House Of Charmans

By MARIAN KRETTLER

Anybody with cash in hand, or good credit standing, can furnish a house, stand back, and take pride in the results. But it takes imagination, resourcefulness and industry to start from scratch and, with a minimum of expenditure, produce something lovely and functional.

Our invitation to "Open House" at the H. R. Charman home at 4822 Del Mar Ave. last Sunday afternoon, was a revelation in what can be done with remodeling an old house, previously unsuited to the needs of three small children, and making over the materials at hand. Many friends and relatives of the Charmans called during the afternoon, partook of refreshments, and were conducted on "tours," by the proud house-wife, Martha Charman.

The living room was done in patterned wall paper, furniture re-finished and upholstered to correspond, and all of it representing the work of the adult Charmans. Surplus war bunks in the boys' bedroom were painted white, and double-tiered with accommodations for a visiting boy friend. Chenille bedspreads were cut down to fit, and windows were curtained with the extra material.

Have you wondered how a sewing machine of the foot-powered variety could be camouflaged successfully? Well, Mrs. Charman has a half-circle table above hers, and the table skirt and curtains in the room are made from a bedspread, also of the chenille variety, that had a large spot rendering it unsuitable for the original purpose.

A bedroom for the senior Charmans was added in the rear of the boys' room. Such pretty ruffled curtains, and Mrs. Charman proudly explained that they were made from cheesecloth at ten cents per yard.

Several pretty mirrors were originally framed by old pictures. "We bought them at a bargain," explained the hostess, "they're much cheaper that way." And several pieces of fine old furniture, dark and checkered by time and use were taken down to the original wood, refinished, and new pulls added. Beautiful! And much finer than such items bought on the modern market.

The laundry room provided a real problem. The floor sloped so that the washing machine refused normal action. Mr. Charman to the rescue. The machine was blocked up, its rollers set in live rubber and presto! It works like a charm.

The Charmans didn't even consider rugs in their scheme of decoration. First of all, their house is a home for three small boys and boys have a way of tracking in dirt. Linoleum throughout the house solves the problem of cleaning and gives "superior appearance" to the floor. Shelves and closet room have been provided by ingenious working out of extra space. Finishing our "tour" with Mrs. Charman, we felt that here was creative ability at work. And also, here was represented the spare time of the husband and father for the past six months. Mr. Charman is a member of our local police force, and both he and his wife are devoting their special efforts towards bringing up boys who are already a credit to their training.

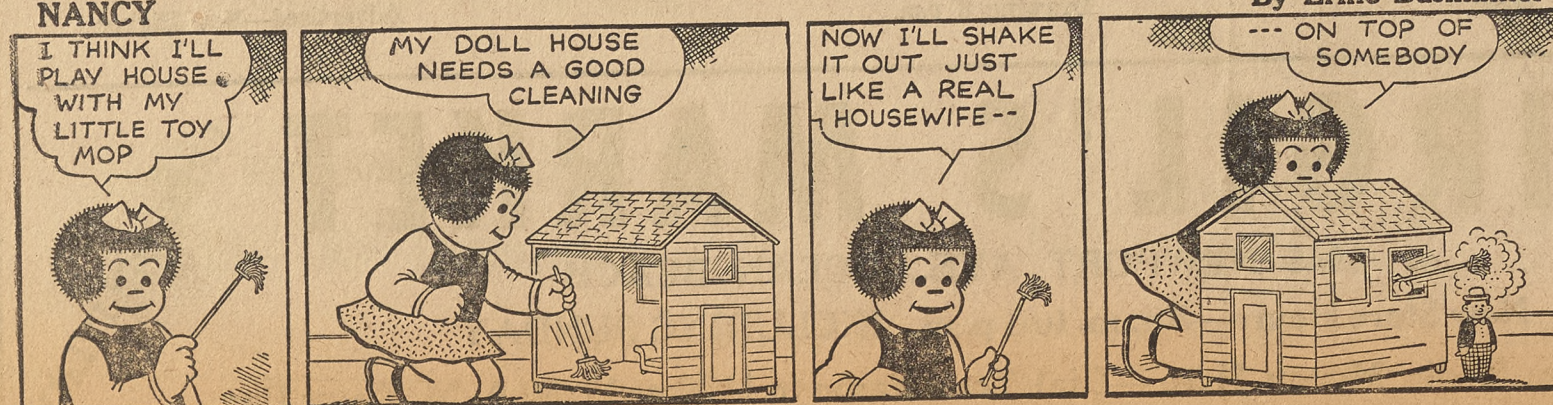

No wonder Mrs. Charman took pride in conducting visitors on "tours" through her re-furnished home. And glorying in the new lawn and garden just planted. The whole project is a testimonial to brains plus industry, and a justifiable cause for pride.

There were approximately 3500 arrests for hazardous violations in San Diego during the month of May.

myself in the down of my mummy bag. I was awakened in a dawn-streaked night, by the patorman's son leaving on his paper route. He was the only paper boy in the town.

Later I woke again and walked back to town to patch the dillions of little holes the grass burrs had made in my tires. I had just turned "Chariot" over to begin when a tall, nice looking kid offered his assistance. We patched 14 holes in the front tube and nearly as many in the back one. Wayne was about 16-years-old and the kind of a boy who is the neighborhood leader—intelligent, ambitious and clean. He discovered that my brake band had slipped and was bent. I went to all the stores in town trying to get a new one. When I got back to the service station, unsuccessful, Wayne had already straightened the band and put the bike back together. He asked me if I would like to go to the young people's meeting at his church that evening after dinner. I agreed readily to meet Wayne at the same station later. I wrote some letters and was looking for a nice place to have dinner.

As I was crossing the street a gangly unkempt fellow joked at me and my bike. I joked right back and when I reached his side of the street, pushing "Chariot," he fell in step beside me. I don't understand how, in a moment we were friends. We ate dinner together. Jack was a real tramp. He seemed to have no ambition and no pride. His clothes were ragged, his person uncared for. He had had an unhappy and unloved childhood and was now just drifting about with no special aim, no enjoyment of anything. I got all fired up trying to make him see how much beauty there is in everything and how much life can hold for him if he will work for it. He seemed to catch my spirit. He said he'd been like one walking thru' the blackest of caverns and that I had given him a torch.

After a time I realized I was already half hour late for my date with Wayne. After hunting the town Jack and I found the little church. He wouldn't go in, said he had to catch the man he'd hitched a ride with, as he was taking him right thru' to the East and rides were hard to get. He did say he would leave a note care of Gen. Del. for me at a town farther on and maybe even meet me there. He'd had no schooling but has a good brain and clean cut face. I'd hoped to meet him again, but when I reached the town agreed on I found his note which said "Sorry Norma I can't make it, I'm going in to the east. You're a swell kid, take care of yourself." I keep wondering about him.

In the little church I found an odd group gathered—four pretty girls in their teens on one side of the room and about seven rowdy boys draped in the chairs at the back of the other side of the room. On the speaker's stand was a freckled face, red head who was very torturedly giving a talk from a paper in his hand. He'd read a line or two then grin foolishly at the boys who laughed rudely and made noisy cracks. To the surprise of everyone I sat beside Wayne with the boys. When "Red" finished his speech and sat down, a pretty dark young woman stood up and spoke. There was a respectful half-silence and even more silence when Wayne got up and as president closed the meeting.

I met the minister's wife, then went out with Wayne and the boys, while the girls stared at me in wonder. After explaining my tardy arrival to Wayne, I went with the boys in "Red's" father's car—to their hangout, the prettiest cafe in town. We had sodas, Continued Galley Four danced to the juke box, played the pin ball machine and grabbed—then someone came in the front door and caused a commotion. We all crowded over to the middle of the fountain to see what went on. "He's in there!" "Where?" "In there making a phone call." "Who?" "Yeah who, what's all the excitement?" "I got his autograph." "I'm going to get it." "He said Mina was beautiful." "Here he comes finally." "Oh I know who he is," said Wayne, "all the movie stars stop here, it's John Carroll!" I was gawking with the rest of the group at the huge muscular Spaniard who was signing all kinds of pieces of paper that the kids pushed at him. I took in his grand manner of importance and arrogant facial expressions, while I was being jostled by the rest, and recalled exciting pirate pictures that kept me on the edge of my seat with their dashing hero, a gallant bold fellow who was masterful with his women. This then was his eminence in person. I turned and was walking away, when he turned to me and said, "Now who's this? Don't you want my autograph, too?"

Can't seem to finish this Mom, right now so will have to send it this way.

(Note: So you all have to share my wonder to what happened then.—Mrs. B.)

LOSERS HERE GOOD SPORTS

All the world loves a winner, but Ocean Beach loves its winning losers too, for in losing graciously, with a sincere sportsmanlike grin of admiration for their winning competitors, the Crackerbox Derby losers Sunday demonstrated the essence of American sportsmanship, the "win, lose, or draw, it was fun anyhow" attitude of great sports contenders. By so doing have won the respectful acclaim of their community. They would be embarrassed by and resentful of a flowery tribute to their sense of fair play, because to them it "jest comes natcherly," and it is this very quality of innate, down-deep sportsmanship for which Ocean Beach salutes them. In these twelve-year old kids there dwells that spirit of the game for its own sake which has characterized American sportsmen for generations of our history and has made sporting events in this country renowned the world over for graciousness and chivalry.

Also to be commended is the Kiwanis Club and its Crackerbox Derby committee. The smooth cooperation which characterized the whole proceedings was due principally to the preparatory work and the guidance of this public-spirited group, whose sole aim was to give the youngsters something constructive to occupy their minds and their leisure time. These objectives were attained beyond even the committee's fondest hopes, and they are to be thanked for creating a memorable event in the sports history of their community.

Ocean Beach merchants also are to be commended for their loyal support of the affair.

MOVIE GANGSTERISM

An effort is being made to induce Hollywood studios to cut down on the production of gangster pictures. Juvenile authorities and others concerned with the high rate of crime involving youngsters, feel that gangster pictures contribute in some degree to lawlessness.

Even though these movies are supposed to emphasize the crime-doesn't-pay theme, they actually incite adolescents in some instances, to emulate screen gangsters.

In addition to their effect on our children, gangster films also give the citizens of other countries a very distorted view of the United States and its people. A statement made by here were very much like my own people in Sweden.

Miss Bergman now knows the facts. But not every moviegoer in the scores of nations to which American films are sent, gets the opportunity to come here and find out the truth.

Dear Skep: He'd probably also lie about more important matters.

A Tragedy

Then a rage beyond awl reason by his unkencern, the brute gave vent to a low maledick-shun and began reigning blos on her pretty little hed, even scratching her in his madness.

Even though this she held her peace, but at length, her feelings at the blazing point, she gave a reluctant sputter into tirime.

SHORT STORY

Good Business

By M. J. COLLINS

UNCLE JOE came stamping into the kitchen making about as much noise as a small herd of cattle.

"Here! You be careful!" Aunt Martha warned, waving a large mixing spoon threateningly. "I have bread settin'. And wipe your feet, don't you dare traipse in here from that dirty old barn yard."

"Gold darn it, woman, you put what I was goin' to say clean out of my head," he grumbled. "Oh, yes, now I remember—I think we should sell out and go live in town." There was a faraway look in his eyes and he thought of all the pleasures of retirement. Perhaps they'd buy a new car and do a little traveling.

"Huh! I'm not moving to town and leave our home just to suit a whim of yours. Just get the whole idea out of your head!" There was finality in her voice. "You go and clean up, Ralph and Jenny."

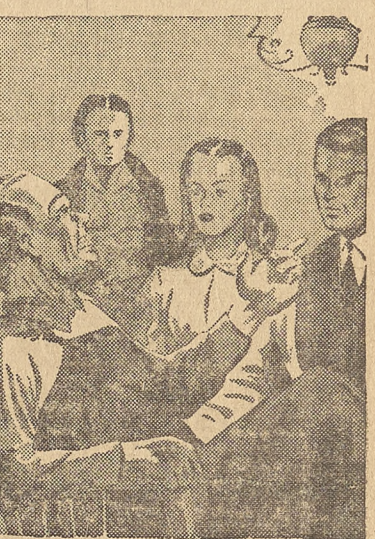

ny are coming over for supper. All your clothes are on the bed so don't ask me where they are when they're right under your nose."

"We didn't have the slightest inkling of what Uncle had suggested until supper was nearly over and then Aunt Martha asked:

"Do you know what your uncle wants to do?" and as she generally does, answered herself before we could even open our mouths. "Sell the farm and move to town."

"Oh, I think that's a good idea!" Jenny cried. "It'll be so much easier for you."

The first thing we knew, we were involved in a full scale battle, three against Aunt Martha, but she wasn't

We were involved in a full scale argument, three against Martha, but she wasn't giving an inch.

giving an inch. Not her! Finally she did admit that she didn't get her work done as spryly as before and from there on the battle was won.

Uncle Joe was jubilant. It had been easier than he'd dreamed.

During the next few weeks several would-be buyers came to appraise the farm and finally one of them said he would buy it. Uncle Joe and Aunt Martha had been shopping around trying to find a house in town but getting one was a tougher proposition than they'd expected.

Eventually the sale was completed and the new owner bought the farm complete with stock and implements for ten thousand dollars. He told Uncle Joe they could have another additional two weeks to find a house and move.

Early next morning we were over at their place and into the job of packing up. About nine-thirty the new owner drove out and hailed Uncle Joe.

"I've been thinking it over, Mr. Quinn, and this place doesn't quite suit me. How would you like to buy it back at the same price?"

Uncle Joe sort of looked at him popteyed and we all crowded around what to say. "I just don't know what to say," he mumbled, "the wife has sort of set her mind on movin' to town."

"Faith, and I haven't!" Aunt Martha swung her arms around excitedly. "You buy it back, Joe Quinn, if you know what

Construction on the jetty no doubt will have to wait on congress to appropriate the money that will be needed to start building the San Diego river channel through the bay.

Regards Tuna Bill Important
Luckel reports that likely the most important bill to San Diego passed was that taking off the ceiling weight of 150 pounds of blue fin tuna that can be sold at least until June 30, 1949.

McLean Wilson, formerly of Ocean Beach, was reported Tuesday as critically ill.

The Kiwanis club sponsored the derby, a committee consisting of Jack Stevenson, Bill Morlin, Glen Cords and Tom Plant, being in charge. Other officials assisting in the handling of the derby included Milton Lancaster, A. J. Morss, E. W. Montgomery, Martin Murphy, Forest Whedon, and Dr. W. B. Oster. Les Drummett represented the City Chevrolet Co., the heaviest financial contributor to the event other than the Kiwanis club.

Earl Shaw of the Ocean Beach Furniture Co. donated use of the two trucks.

Chairman Stevenson of the Kiwanis committee paid high tribute to the city officials who cooperated both in preparation of the race course and in the help given by the police in handling the crowd.

SIX RESCUES AT BEACH

The local Life Guard station reports six rescues of swimmers from the treacherous cross-currents of the ocean. June 27 the following people were saved from drowning: John Gordon, 10, of Los Angeles; Billy Jones, 10, of Oregon; Mrs. J. R. Richman, 43, of San Diego; and J. M. Parker, 24, of the U.S.S. Lennan K. Swenson. June 30 the rescue of two girls was reported. They were Sandra, 15, and Janet, 11, Nickleson of Lafayette, Calif. Swimmers are again urged by the guards to follow directions as to where to swim and how far out to go.

Mrs. Catherine Sparkes Weidel, who formerly lived in Sioux City, Iowa, is one of our newest and most enthusiastic boosters for Ocean Beach. Mrs. Weidel has three sons who are living in other cities of Southern California, and she has visited them all as well as sojourning in other places while searching for an ideal spot in which to make her home. It was not until she came to Ocean Beach, she says, that she found the combination for which she was seeking—beauty of surroundings, ideal climate and nearness to the ocean. She has purchased a home at 4725 Voltaire St. The sale was made through the agency of Jean Rittenhouse.

Bacon-Potato Salad
Bacon adds pep and heartiness to potato salad. Dice two or three slices of bacon, and cook until crisp. Drain and add to potato salad. For extra flavor in hot potato salad, use the bacon drippings as seasonings, too.

Steak Accompaniment
A superlative dressing for that favorite steak is made by adding a few drops of Worcestershire sauce to creamed Roquefort or Blue cheese. Spread on the sizzling hot steak just before serving.

"VIRGIL'S VIEWS"

And here is a note just for all you pickle-pusses. By pickle pussies we mean all you fellow lovers of the things preserved in vinegar, such as pickles and olives and relishes. Virgil has knocked 10% off of the selling price on all his pickles and olives, which take them out of the luxury class right down into the everyday eating class. For instance, you know about those delicious imported Pimento stuffed Spanish olives that are what you imbibe Martinis for to get. . . well, those, in the 3 oz. jars, are priced at 26c, which certainly isn't atrocious, but when you knock 3c more off of that price, they become downright cheap, and, even if you can't afford the Martinis, you can certainly afford the olives, which is the best part of the cocktail, anyway. Or don't you agree?

Incidentally, they are so easy to chop up, and they make a meat loaf taste simply out of this world! Not to mention how simply ultra they are in salads or just as a snack when you want something but don't know what you want. And then there are the cucumber pickles. We know a man who goes into ecstasies of delight over cucumber pickles. Over each bite he goes through the same routine, a combination of pain and ecstasy that is really something to see. First he screws his face all up; then he smacks his lips, squints his eyes, gives his head a quick shake, and, very much like a small child with a rare candy treat, says "Boy, oh boy, are these ever good!" Well, if you know a man like that, we hope you bought him a big jar of cucumber pickles and, of course, that you bought that jar at Virgil's 'cause he's got nothing but the best brands, and they are at the lowest prices in town. Go on.

Try the other stores. You'll wish you hadn't when you have to pay so much more.

Here's another character sketch on the personnel at Virgil's, and this time it's on that master mind, that tycoon of the grocery business, that whiz of a price-cutter, and that handsome master of ceremonies every Saturday night at his store, Virgil Swoboda.

He sits up there in his little office and peers through his venetian blind pretty exclusive and all sometimes, but anybody who shops there regular knows what a regular guy he is on the cheek stand when the customers are lined up, or how cheerfully he can shoulder a box of bananas or tote a box of groceries to a car if he need arises.

If you peer in through the windows on Saturday night, you'll probably see the Missus, sitting on one of the check stand counters, trying to keep the three little ones out of Daddy's hair while he reads off the numbers. He's a real hero to his family, but maybe it's just because he's such a rare sight around home. Poor man works all hours trying to figure out ways to keep his prices way down there; so shopping for groceries will be just a little bit easier for you and me. Right now his major problem is more check stands to accommodate the mobs flooding his store.

With so little time off these days, he spends most of it sleeping, and doesn't have time to indulge his favorite hobby, flying. But he still gets in a little surf fishing and swimming, and he's a firm believer in and booster of Ocean Beach. Don't know how you feel about it, but your reporter says he should be successful the way he runs that business, and we for one, will be glad to see it. His success means our job.—Adv.
